

Press Release Bernd Delbrügge Band

Saxophonist Bernd Delbrügge, Gert Kapo (keys), Gero Gellert (bass) and Dirk Ferdinand (drums) truly know how to serve grooves, and never simmer on low heat even when playing solo, either. Soul jazz, boogaloo and R'n'B are the main ingredients for their jazz and soul kitchen. These four gentlemen always have a nose for an eclectic selection of songs, and when Mr. Delbrügge introduces the songs he always keeps his audiences entertained and amazed. One of the highlights of an evening with the Bernd Delbrügge Band is the moment when the „soul giant and multi tasker“ (Kölner Stadtanzeiger) grabs a microphone and starts to sing.

Bernd Delbrügge is "the most popular saxophonist of Cologne" (Express) and has been in the music business for 30 years. As a prodigy child, pianist Gert Kapo already started studying at the Cologne Music Academy when he was only 16 years old. Dirk Ferdinand and Gero Gellert also successfully completed their studies of jazz and popular music. Technically equipped in such a sophisticated manner these four gentlemen are committed to their repertoire which they play with a lot of verve. They are never competitive, nobody ever aims at outdoing the other one, instead they use the heritage of jazz, boogaloo and blues to create their own musical context.
